

May decided to push herself forward to pursue her dream. Fortunately, because of her talent and effort, she managed to receive the offer and went on the flight to the United States!

Even though the food for the coach seat was so terrible on the plane, she's still energetic when she arrived. Everything is so different in the United States. It took her quite some time to get to the dormitory.

Continue

May decide to push her self forward to pursue her dream. Fortunately, best of her talent and effort, she managed to receive the offer and went on the flight to the united states!

Even though the food for the coach was terrible on the plane, she's still energized when she arrived. Everything is different in the United States. It took her quite some time to get to the dormitory.

containing

